Venice, July 27. N. S. Signor Delfino, Proveditor General of the Sea, hath had his Audience of Leave of the Senate, and will Embark in a Day or two for the Levant. Several Veſſels are ready to ſet Sail at the ſame time, with ſome Troops on Board, as alſo a large quantity of Ammunition and Proviſions. A Contagious Diſtemper is again broke out among the Cattle hereabouts. They write from Rome, that on the 17th Inſtant a Courier arrived there from Madrid, with a Commiſſion from the King of Spain to Cardinal Acquiviva to marry, in his Majeſty's Name, the Princeſs of Parma, only Child of the Duke, and afterwards to accompany her to Final, where ſhe is to embark for Marſeilles, and from thence ſhe will purſue her Journey by Land to Madrid. On the 18th the Cardinal had a long Audience of the Pope. He was afterwards for ſome time with Cardinal Albani, and the next Day he ſet out for Parma. Count Galas, Ambaſſador of his Imperial Majeſty, had been in Conference with the Cardinals Paulucci and Albani, after which he diſpatch'd an Expreſs to the Court of Vienna. We have receiv'd advice, that his Sicilian Majeſty, who continues ſtill at Meſſina, hath ordered ſome new Regiments to be raiſed there, and it is ſaid they will be ſent into Piedmont to replace the like Number of Troops which are to come from thence into Sicily, in order to reinforce the Garriſons of the Places in that Kingdom.

Paris, Auguſt 14. N. S. On the 12th an Expreſs from Monſieur d'Ibberville, his Majeſty's Envoy at the Court of Great Britain, arrived at Verſailles, with an account, that the Queen had been ſeized with an Apoplexy, and that Her Life was deſpair'd of. They write from Baden, that the Abbot Paſſionei was come to that Place with a Commiſſion from the Pope, and had viſited the Imperial and French Miniſters. We have received advice, that the Marquis de Mary was ſet ſail from Marſeilles with a Fleet laden with Ammunition and Proviſions for the Camp before Barcelona. We are informed from thence, that on the 30th paſt Mareſchal Berwick made himſelf Maſter of the Covered-way without reſiſtance.

Hague, Auguſt 17. N. S. On the 13th a Meſſenger arrived here from London with Diſpatches for the Earl of Strafford, and immediately went on to Utrecht, where his Excellency was gone to conſer with the Plenipotentiaries of Spain and Portugal, upon the Subject of the Treaty of Peace ſtill depending between thoſe two Crowns. The ſame Night Mr. Craggs paſſed through this Place in his way to Hanover, and the next Day Monſieur Godike, Secretary of Baron Bothmar, arrived here with the melancholy News of the Death of Her late Majeſty Queen Anne. He alſo brought an account, that the moſt High and Mighty Prince George, Elector of Brunſwick-Lunenburg, had been Proclaimed King of Great Britain. On the 14th, the Earl of Strafford came from Utrecht, and immediately after his return, he had a long Conference with Monſieur Heinſius, the Great Penſionary. The next Day his Excellency had another with the Deputies of the States-General, upon the Subject of their Engagements in relation to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, to which the States have already return'd him a very agreeable Anſwer, On the 15th the Earl of Dorſet paſſed thro' this
